LAGUNA BEACH POST, No. 222

P.O. BOX 517

LAGUNA BEACH, CALIFORNIA 92652

All of us who are younger than the “Greatest Generation,” have an obligation to tell the stories of those who fought and won WWII. Katie Lang-Slattery tells such a story, in novel form, of men known as Ritchie Boys in her book, “Immigrant Soldier – The Story of a Ritchie Boy.”

We were moved to hear about this little known aspect of WWII, when Katie Lang-Slattery came to speak to Post 222 in March 2016.

We at Post 222 highly recommend Katie as a speaker for all American Legion and veteran groups.
